Holiday Hop at the the McLure one of the most brilliant events in local society circles for some time and the here and fashionable assublage of the youth and beauty of Wheeling and other towns passed the evening to luneful music, amid surroundings that were beautiful and examples of decorative

The affair was in charge of Measts Morgan Hart and J. D. Merriman, These gentlemen must have been gratified at the spectacle the ball room presented when the Opera House orchestra struck up the opening bars of La Tosca waitz, the first programmed dance. Nearly the entire second floor was given over to the dancers and no pains were spared to make each nook a floral bower. Potted paims and ferus were displayed in profusion, and tastefully arranged arches of rich furnishings. Every room was bril-

It is the acene an additional charm. It is the dancer of the dancing took place in the dining hall and that specious room was none too large. The guest entered the hetel at the private entrance on Twelfth street, under a canopy extending from the pavement. The programms included popular society dancer, and the musical selections were gens of melody. The costumes of the ladies were models of taste and elegance, and varied as they were in the many whirls of the dance charmed the eye of the onlooker. The Henry Oil Company has started No. 8 on the Holtschw farm, in the Benwood district. It is located to the west of anything that has been drilled in that field and will be a very important test well.

The Ramey Oil Company is about the at No. 2, on the O'Dell farm, in the Plum run district. This well has been delayed for rome time on necount of bad fishing jobs.

The Carter Oil Company has drilled in the Well on the Ed. Livingston farm in the Hebron territory and has a very small well. This well is located on the edge of developments near the Clutter farm on which Crawford & Treat drilled in a good well some time aso.

AMUSEMENTS.

Maggie Cline and her new play, "On Maggie Cline and her new play, "On Broadway," will be the attraction at the Opera House this evening. The star and play come to Wheeling fresh from really successful entagements in all the principal cities. Maggie Cline put a complete store to any disheiled in her dramatic ability and gave a mientid rendering of the role Mary litady, a woman contractor who is forced into business to save what she can of the vireck that has been brought by the convivialities of her father. Although Maggie Cline loft the vanishing the stage for the leaftinate she sings "Artish, go on" and "Trow Him Down by the convivialities of her father. Although Maggie Cline left the vanda-ville stage for the festitinate she sings. "Artish, go on" and "Trow Him Down McChoskoy," with all her lold fervor and received even heartler applicate than in former days. Taking it will though, "On Broadway" is a cledit to its authors, Clay M. Greene and hen, and to the star and her company. There is me doubt but what this attraction will be greeted by a house of over-flowing proportions.

delightful piece of comedy, finely bal-anced, presenting a sweet story, quaint characters and fresh scenes. In this successful comedy Mr. Towne, the su-thor, has given us a new story, telling it directly and brilliardly, the several characters being schul reflections from nature. The many ludierous com-plications of this recilt funny play are hardled in a most brilliant manner by an exceptionally clever company of councilians.

Brilliant acting, splendid costumes gorgeous scenic embellishments, and Brillant acting, splendid costimes, gorgeous scenic embellishments, and two poworful plays artistically interpreted by a talented company, is what James Young promises theatre-norse upon life appearance in Wheeling in a few days. Plat Mr. Young is capable of performing all he promises can does from one of the first families in Battlimore, born with a love for histrionic fame, surrounded from youth with every facility of perfecting himself for his chosen profession, and imbued with youth and genius coupled with energy and ambition, he is bound to win his way to the front. He will be seen here at the Opera House next Monday and Thesday, January 4 and 5, in "Hambel" and "David Garrick," both plays are finely costumed by Hermann, of New York, and Van Horn, of Philadelphia, with beautiful scenery painted by Slemmer, of Lattinore, and music arranged by the late Adam Lizel, of "Tay and Tartar" fame, He brings with him a company of unusual excellence, including Miss Rida Monise Johnson, and sixteen competent and well chosen players. Attempting to Resume.

The attempt made by the Piltsburgh & Cincinnati packet line to resume navigation on the upper Ohio by sending out the big Keystone Sinte from Pitsburgh for Cincinnati, has not resulted in flattering success. The big liner left Piltsburgh Monday and should have been here yesterday morning. Unfortunately, the boat got into difficulties only a few hours out by striking a dense for the whole of the striking a dense for the striking and the strength of the accordance of the striking and the strength of the striking shows the striking as the striking shows Steubenville, was reached, she struck an ice gorge and in trying to terialy morning she proceeded down stream, but when Cable's rille, several niles above Steubenville, was reached, she struck at ice gorge and in trying to work her way through got imbedded so tightly in the gorge that she was unable even to back out again. Captain Knox wired to Wheeling for assintance, and the Heatherington towboat, Eliza H. was sent up the river to aid the liner as quickly as possible. The Eliza worked at the gorge and imprisoned beat until darkness hat evening without unful darkness hat evening without having released her, and then work was stopped for the night. As only 150 feet of the gorge remains to be broken it is thought the big liner will be here this morning at 9 o'clock for Cincinant and way landings. She will, have no trouble below Wheeling, as the lee gorge shove Sardis was carried out yesterday Sardts was carried out yesterday

There will probably be a slight rise here to-day, as the report from Pitts-burgh has flight showed a rising river. However, as the Monongahen is sistinguary and the Allegheny is reported falling, there will be very little water, unless the rains cause a good rise at headwaters.

A famous painting shows the infant Nappleon in the chamber of his birth, and shows his mother watching over him. The mother of Nappleon was a strong healthy, active woman. She brought into the world a family of smart, handsome, leadily, children. Without health and strength Napoleon would never have risen above the position in which he was born. His mother could not give him wealth or high station in life, but she gave something better. She gave him the ability to scurre these things for himself. She equipped him with a strong body and a clear intellect. Every mother may do as much for her son. The first step in this direction is perfect health for her-self. Perfect health in a wemanly way. She must keep them strongly healthy for the performance of the measure of the greatest and most wonderful work in the world. Women do not sufficiently appreciate the importance of health and carefulness. This is shown by the dreadful prevalence of so-called "Female Complaint," Every woman may be strong and healthy by taking Dr. Flerce's Pavorite Prescription, it is not a cure-sall. It is intended to cure just one kind of disease, and if it is taken during the period of gestation, it insures health for the child; and, at the time of paturition, comparative freedom from the pains and dangers erroneously believed to be unavoidable.

The physiology of wumen, in health and disease, its contained in Dr. Flerce's great work, the "Common Sense Medical Advisor."
